WHEW! What a winter! The second ice storm in as many days is occurring outside as we are currently prepping for our spring voyage to Round Top. We cannot wait to see all of you, green grass, and the breathtaking bluebonnets. Our usual booth, Booth 380 at the Big Red Barn at the Original Round Top Antiques Fair on March 28 – April 2, will be overflowing with fresh-to-the-market finds. We have really “upped our game” in our offerings across all our many categories. Purchase advanced tickets now at the show’s website, <https://www.roundtoptexasantiques.com/>, and make plans to come see us or contact us now before pieces are reserved.

What has us so excited?

- A fabulous pair of early French blown glass apothecary bottles with witch’s hat tops
- The most amazing cat rug with thick thread dimensional whiskers and claws...Makala coveted this rug and we finally obtained it
- An amazing “Log Cabin” quilt in early calico fabrics in just the right size
- Camp blankets and a fabulous colorful horse blanket perfect for your vacation home
- Simple yet boldly cobalt banded ironstone foot bath as well as magnificent small, plain bulbous foot bath
- The VERY BEST and largest German tom turkey candy container and his matching hen
- Lovely forest of early feather trees including a soothing blue/green, perfect to accent pastel cotton fruit ornaments plus way too many German “spongy” trees and bottle brush trees
- Majolica umbrella stands in florals as well as hearty earth tone geometrics as well as jardinières to compliment
- Superb Majolica garden seat and a summery feeling seashell set of three compotes
- Not only the smallest Pure Butter ironstone slab but also a very special Margarine with shadow box lettering
- Very RARE “New Milk” ironstone pail and a pair of GRADUATED “Cream” pails to die for
- Wonderful medium-sized low ironstone skimmer as well as the prettiest ironstone pitchers ever, jardinières for those sweet smelling spring flowers, tureens, and platters to provide that clean look
- Incredible PAIR of large bulbous blue sponge jardinières to add a punch of color
- Extra special large YELLOWWARE ice pitcher, exceptional cobalt blue Jeffords book flask with the title “History of Bourbon,” blue seaweed-decorated sugar bowl, unusual chocolate brown seaweed-decorated pitcher, and graduated bowls with white bands
- Most MAGNIFICENT pair of Bennington lions...oh my! plus a larger size slop jar, fun Northwind ink well, and a large selection of bowls, nappies, and unusual pie crust edged oval large frame
- Matched pair of shallow wildflower gathering baskets and many more from our private stash

As one of our wonderful pickers commented when his young son asked where he was heading, “Off to see the pirate’s treasure,” what is our bounty this time?

- Stunning gold snake collar with rubies for eyes....snakes are incredibly rare...a “must see”
- Speaking of “must see” the VERY BEST and EARLIEST gold chain we have had...intricate 15 carat gold links in just the perfect length...not for the faint of heart as it is THE BOMB!
- Breathtaking gold teardrop pendant encrusted with rose cut diamonds and completely overlaid with black onyx, even a compartment in the back for a picture of a loved one or perhaps a lock of hair

- Not one but three of the chunkiest link, perfect length, gold chains...similar to trombone link
- Trombone or paperclip link have your eye? Don't fret..we have a superbly chunky and perfect length one in gold and maybe by show time even one in 15ct as well as several in various chunkiness in sterling
- Gold fobs of various sizes to adorn your current chain and to create your personal "look" including the chunkiest, most amazing one with a buckle in the bezel
- Speaking of buckles...a wide gold buckle bangle, a superb pair of gold buckle bangles, a stunning plain silver buckle and even a gold buckle ring with turquoise...only the second one we have had
- Hefty gold watch chain with rolo links and original chunky slide
- Most beautiful gold watch with a large rose gold swallow amid intricate flowers and leaves
- If you are starting to feel lost and not sure which way to go after reading about so many "goodies" then a compass might be in order...a silver banjo-shaped one, intricately woven gold bezel set one, or a simple gold or silver to add to your current "neck mess" might be in order
- High carat gold your heart's desire? 18 carat gold anchor link chain might do the trick
- Solid bangle with bezel set amethysts or gold bangles with diamonds may add desired sparkle
- Sparkle is not lacking in the lovely Rock Crystal solitaires nor the smaller studs and most certainly not in the unbelievable choker as well as the rare opera length chain
- Rose cut diamonds also sparkle in the intricate, encrusted teardrop earrings
- Rich amethysts are the focal point of a pair of domed gold earrings as well as the largest, prettiest spinner fob we have had
- Are you a silver girl? We have LOTS...the Largest silver and Scottish orange agate (Longhorn orange) anchor pin/pendant, twist rope bangles, rhinestone encrusted silver bangles to add bling to your stack, all sizes and decorations including corsets, swallows, and gold locket, chains of all lengths and links for any need or desire, beautiful choker which then makes two bracelets, a very sweet bracelet with rose gold swallows, buckle rings, way too much to even fit in our large case
- Last but not least...our long standing staple..the gold-filled engagement bangles will not disappoint...the largest variety of lion bangles we have ever had, rows and rows of floral stackers, stunning ones with single jewels, and the very best assortment of wide ones ever as we know you have all your starter ones...let's step up and add something bold to that stack/collection.

If this hasn't warmed your hearts and gotten you dreaming of Round Top, then we don't know what will! We simply cannot wait. Our lives have been too hectic to post our recent finds on the website and we treasure you all so you are having first chance at them. We are always here to answer any questions or share details of any of our finds. Do not hesitate to text or call 618-406-4657 or email us munday37@hotmail.com If you cannot attend the show and would like to shop remotely, please contact us to request to be added to the list of those who receive booth pictures. We work with our distant clients in such a way and would love to do the same with you. We aim to accommodate! See you soon in Round Top where spring will be in full bloom and so will our spirits.

Safe travels –
